

NATIONAL SYMBOLS AND EMBLEM

Explore Green World System - Class 3

Every country has special symbols that show its history, culture, and rich heritage. These are called national symbols. They help the people of the nation feel proud and united. National symbols are like a country's unique identity that tells everyone about its spirit and important values.

What are National Symbols?

National symbols include things like flags, emblems, animals, birds, flowers, and even special songs. Each one has its own story and meaning. For example, the national flag represents a country's freedom and strength, while the national bird shows the beauty of nature that is important to the country.

The National Emblem

A very important symbol is the National Emblem. It is a special design that is used officially by the government and on important documents. It represents the power and dignity of the country.

For example, many countries have animals or shapes in their national emblem to remind people of their country's history and values.

Examples of National Symbols

- National Flag: The flag is often a piece of cloth with special colors and symbols.
- National Bird: Many countries choose a bird that is unique to their land.
- National Animal: The animal that represents bravery, strength, or peace.
- National Flower: Flowers can symbolize beauty and natural heritage.
- National Anthem: A special song played on important occasions.

Why are National Symbols Important?

National symbols help people feel connected to their country. When we see or hear these symbols, we remember the struggles, achievements, and unity of the people. They remind us to respect and take care of our country just like we take care of our own home.

Exercise

1. Can you find and draw your country's national flag?
2. Name two national animals or birds of your country and write a sentence about why they are important.
3. Talk to your family about why the national anthem is special.

Remember: National symbols are a source of pride and a treasure for every country!
